

Oxfordshire Way Map 13 —Stonesfield to Kirtlington I (Stonesfield to Stonesfield Steps)

Approximately 2.2 miles (3.5 km)

TL= Turn Left FL = Fork Left BL = Bear Left
 TR = Turn Right FR = Fork Right BR = Bear Right

1 At the Methodist chapel, TR down Churchfields until the road bends sharply to the left. TR here down Brook Lane and follow the lane that becomes a bridleway track leading straight on and dropping steeply down to the ford and bathing area.

4 Cross this road also and continue straight on to Stonesfield Steps, a wooden ladder-stile set in Blenheim Park Wall.

3 Cross the road and carry straight along field edge path until you reach another road named Akeman Street after the Roman road that you are following.

2 Do not cross the ford bridge but TL through a metal kissing gate. Follow the path through a grassy field to another kissing gate and then continue along field edge with the hedge on your right to a gap in a stone wall. Carry straight on along the next field edge leading to the Stonesfield/Combe road.

