Criteria for progression to Senior Practitioner post;

Social Workers can progress to the role of Senior Practitioner subject to the following criteria, which is assessed by the Career Progression Panel –

- Minimum of 3 years post qualifying experience, which must demonstrate relevance to the post. This must include a minimum of 12 months' statutory social work experience and the remainder within an appropriate health or social care role with a recognised provider. (N.B. Any work not undertaken within a statutory agency should be at the level of work expected within statutory social care). Exceptions to this will be considered only where an employee has considerable experience at a comparable level. However, this will be unusual and a clear case for an exception would need to be discussed and agreed with the relevant Tier 3 manager prior to any submission to panel.
- Grade 11 level of competence is that expected of experienced social workers, as detailed in the Professional Capabilities Framework and includes the following:
- Work independently on complex cases requiring a high degree of analysis and evaluation
- Evidence within supervision and appraisal of a high degree of reflective practice within current casework including the application of social work theory
 - Chairing of multiagency meetings
 - Motivate and develop newly qualified and less experienced social workers
 - High quality record keeping and chronologies within appropriate timescales
 - Direct experience of complex statutory safeguarding casework and the PLO, including the completion of social work evidence for the family Court.
- Provision of a current CPD portfolio that would be submitted to the HCPC if called upon to confirm practice standards.
